

Dear Mom and Dad,

In school today we talked about what thanksgiving is really like. It is when you thank everybody for everything. It is not when you just eat food. I thank you for you didn't adopt me, for fixing the upstairs so I could have a room, and I am thankful that Nelly got her baby alive.

Lynn

Thanksgiving 1964